At a meeting of the passengers of the steamer Pacific, the Hen P Herbert was called to the chair, and H. Owner appointed Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed Major James Graham, Coionel B. L. E. Bonneville, Colonal Thomas. Meesre. W. C. McDengal and W. Flearney, a committee to draft re-olutions expressive of the views of the meeting.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimeusly approved and adopted:—
Resolved, That being about to close an agreeable passenge from Sam Francisco to San Juan dei Sur, and to part with those who have contributed se much to its assety and comfort, we tender our thanks to the officers of this abip, for their unwearied and most successful exertions to bring us safely, quickly, and comfortably into port.

Resolved, That to the wise and liberal policy adopted by C. K. Garrison, the deservelly popular and most efficient agent of the line at San Francisco, we are indebted for an abundant supply of the best of stores, and for every arrangement positile to be made to alleviate the inconveniences and anneyances inseparable from a voyage of sea.

Reserved, That we welcome back Capt. E. Wakeman to the scenes of his forear unstudiess, where he has gained a truly saviable reputation for capacity as a seamen, indomitable energy and untaring watchfulness over the safety of his ship and the comfort of his passengers.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Chair, who shall same to be presented to Capt. Re wakeman a gold mounted belt in the name of the pass-ngers, as an evidence of their confidence of his sea manahip, and a token of regard for his character as man.

Resolved, That the "always on hand and never sleeping" Mr. Bodfish, first officer of the ship, well deserved notice at our hands, and we take pleasure in bearing teatimony to his capacity and the quiet and efficient member in which he has discharged the duties devolving many him.

Resolved, That the admirable manuer in which Mr. Pelo has presided over the steward's department is such as is rarely set with, and merits our warmest praise. Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to send copies of these resolutions to the San Francisco and New York names. ples of these resonance.

EXCURSION OF DORIO LODGE OF FREE AND ACcop'ed Masons.—St. John's Day, 25th June.—The besutiful and well appointed steamer Laura Knapp, under the command of that experienced and gentlemanby Capta'n, Anderson, started from pier 37 East river, having the members of the Boric Lodge, with their ladies, and a goodly number from other lodges, on brard, who joined with their orethrem to participate. Having steamed around States hlaud and enjoyed a most delightful 'sail, with a happy and agreeable company on board, and a goed band of music, soos partnersulps were formed, and business commenced. The waltz, the palks, the schottisch, &c., all came in for their turn, and right merrily was it enjoyed, until we came too to make a short stop at that delightful spot, "The Sailors' Saug Harber." Much has been, and much might well be, said in regard to this neble institution (we were cordisily received by the governor, Capt. Depuyster.) and its facilities. The sailors new there—two hundred or more, a very noble class of men—showed, by the sunken eye, the turrowed cheek, the gray lecks or a disabled limb, that they had ceased to war with old cosan, and sharbor. The use of the chapel having been kindly teadered to us, an informal meeting gathered, where remarks were made by the P. W. of Doric Lodge and a brother of Centingatal Lodge. Then we prepared to take our departure, fellowed by 60d bless them! Once more upon our noble beat, all was life, and the brotherity feeling exhibited by all to render each other happy was proverbial. The music was struck up again, and the company joined in the dance. Before arriving at our pier, a meeting of the passengers was called, at which the P. W. of Doric Lodge prevising at
